

Sports Tribunal Legal Assistance Panel

The following lawyers have expressed an interest in providing legal advice to those involved in sports disputes. Sometimes their services are provided at a reduced rate, or even free. The fee or hourly rate should be negotiated before engaging any legal advice, and the Tribunal ultimately has no bearing on what these lawyers charge.

If you require legal support for an anti-doping case, Drug Free Sport New Zealand has established a fund to assist with legal fees. Further details are available here.
